Notification

DE/AE/30/54/2009/245

The Government of Goa is pleased to introduce the Revised Scheme for Literacy and Vocational Training for Adults

1. Introduction.— The literacy rate of the State is around 82% (2001 Census) which means that 18% of the population of Goa is not literate. Many of them are in the age group of 50 to 60 years. To motivate them to learn and acquire skills of reading, writing, using numbers as well as vocational skills the Government has introduced a scheme to promote literacy and vocational training in adult learners.

2. Short title and commencement.— This scheme may be entitled “Revised Scheme for Literacy and Vocational Training for Adults”. It shall be deemed to have come into force with immediate effect.

3. Aims and Objectives.— The main objective of the scheme is to achieve 100% literacy rate in the State by 2011. Adult illiterates of the age of 20 years and above will acquire the skills of writing, reading, speaking, listening and the use of numbers from 1 to 100. Further the scheme aims to impart basic skills under vocational training to make this segment of society productive.

4. Components of the Scheme.— (A) Component I: Setting up of Literacy and Vocational Centres.

(a) Scope:

Each centre should have minimum 20 learners and should operate 4 times a week with a duration of 1½ hours per day as per the convenience of the learners.

(b) Implementing procedure:

(i) The literacy class for learners will be of 45 minutes duration for four days in a week. The break up of the literacy class is as follows:—

→ 5 mins : Motivation session which will include topics on Health, Education, Science, Environment etc. Any controversial topic must be avoided.

→10 mins : numbers.

→10 mins : writing skill.

→10 mins : reading/speaking skill.

→10 mins : practice.

Total : 45 mins.

Monthly attendance and evaluation sheets of individual learners with countersignature of President/Chairman of the organization running the centre must be sent to the Directorate of Education.

(ii) Vocational class for learners will be of 45 minutes duration and this class should be taken after literacy class on same day. The organization running the centre may choose different short term 1-2 months vocational training programmes or any suitable courses as per local need such as production of artificial jewellery, preparation of chalk, candles, paper bags, glass painting, fabric painting, pot painting, training in mehendi, rangoli, rakhi, preparation of greeting cards, flower bouquets, flower pots, training in beauty parlour work over the period of six months.

(iii) Incentive to the learners will be sanctioned only if 80% attendance is obtained, less than that no incentive will be paid.

(iv) Classes must be planned as per the convenience of the learners and tentative plan of classes both literacy and vocational training must be sent to the Directorate of Education well in advance. Any change in the schedule should also be informed in advance.

(c) Pattern of Assistance:

1. Total grant of Rs. 60,000/- shall be given in 3 installments to the implementing agency for each course of 6 months duration.

2. Token installment of Rs. 20,000/- shall be released after the issue of sanction order by the Directorate of Education.

3. Second installment of Rs. 20,000/- shall be released after 3 months subject to submission of utilization certificate of previous installment and submission of 60% achievement by the learners as per internal evaluation report.

4. Third installment of Rs. 20,000/- shall be released at the end of 6 months i.e. at the end of the course and after submission of 60% achievements by the learners as per external evaluation report.

(d) Admissible items of Expenditure:
